

CHAIRMAN'S COMMENTS

MARCH 2006

When you think of Republican politics in Greene County, one name comes to mind, Mel Thompson. At the annual Greene County Lincoln Day, Mel was honored as Republican of the Year. There could not have been a more deserving candidate to be bestowed that recognition. Congratulations to Mel and the entire Thompson family. We are proud to call you FRIENDS.

If you were one of the 200 people to attend Lincoln Day, thank you. If you missed it, you'll want to mark your 2007 calendar early. Thanks to the wonderful work of the event committee, this was the event of the year. The word is spreading, "It's a good time to be a Republican".

News from the State Republican Committee: The Grassroots Subcommittee has been working hard to develop a checklist with top priority action items for each Republican Central Committee. We will be calling on you to implement these action items in the near future. It's important to remember, what's good for Greene County and Southwest Missouri is good for Missouri. Volunteer, it's contagious!

T.A.R.G.E.T. NEWS

The Discovery Center was the place to be on February 11th for the Greene County Lincoln Day Celebration. The family event was well attended. The children were served pizza and had the freedom to experience the exciting things the Discovery Center offers. Clary's Restaurant, Dining by Design, Pure Elegance and Churchill's Coffee provided the hors d'oeuvres and desserts. Congressman Roy Blunt and Senator Jim Talent provided short messages. Special introductions were given by Governor Matt Blunt and State Treasurer Sarah Steelman. Greene County Clerk Richard Struckhoff's band, the Geezers, provided the musical entertainment. The evening was fun filled and entertaining. My thanks to Shane Schoeller and his committee for bringing everything together, they did a terrific job. Most of all we send our thanks to the sponsors for providing financial support in order to make an event like this one a success.
