

PARTY TALK

CHAIRMAN'S LETTER

November 2006

We are in the home stretch, Cardinals vs Tigers, Talent vs McCaskill. It's a close contest and we've got to give it our all to the very end. Be a team player and don't leave anything on the field.

It's all about voter turnout and getting people to the polls. If you accomplished the nine items listed in Party Talk last month, congratulations! Let's keep working until November 7th. If you were unable to complete the list, it's not too late. Mark one item off at a time and you will meet your goal by Election Day.

Join us for the Election night Watch Party beginning at 7:00pm at the Oasis Inn and Convention Center. It's the place to be to watch the results come in with the candidates, volunteers and fellow Republicans.

COLLEGE REPUBLICANS TAILGATE PARTY

The College Republicans Chapter at Missouri State University will be participating with a float in the MSU Homecoming Parade on Saturday Oct. 28th at 9:00am. It should be very entertaining. The parade route starts at the corner of John Q. Hammons Parkway and E. Trafficway, the route will follow JQH Parkway all the way to E. Grand. Preceding the parade we will also be having a tailgate party all the way till kickoff of the football game which is at 1:05 pm. (Vs. Southern Illinois Salukis) Bear Village is on the South side of Grand, we will have a tent with signs supporting our candidates. At the tent we will have hotdogs, pies, and refreshments. The food is at no cost, although we will take donations. Also, we will be conducting a 50/50 raffle drawing at the tent and during the first half of the football game. The tickets are $1 and if you buy in bulk there will be a discount. The winner gets half the pot and the other half will be split in half, with one half given to the American Breast Cancer Foundation (Oct. is Breast Cancer Awareness month). It should be a day filled if a ton of excitement and I hope to see you there!!
Go Bears!!
