CHAIRMAN'S LETTER

OCTOBER 2006

We are down to the last month before the general election. Greene County and Southwest Missouri will play a key role in re-electing Senator Jim Talent and electing a new State Auditor in Sandra Thomas. We must also reach the finish line with all of our local Republican candidates victorious. There is much to be accomplished. I ask for your assistance with the following tasks between now and November 7th:

1. Register people to vote through October 11th
2. Participate in a parade or community event
3. Identify locations for large signs
4. Assist in putting together and placing yard signs
5. Recruit 10 volunteers
6. Participate one night a week with the phone bank
7. Give a Saturday, going door to door in your neighborhood
8. Assist with a mass mailing
9. Volunteer at campaign headquarters

Show your support for Jim Talent by joining us Monday, October 16th at headquarters to watch the local debate between the two major Senatorial candidates.

The "72 Hour Plan" will be in full force the final weekend before the election. Greene County will need at least 300 volunteers to be successful with the overall get out the vote. That means YOU! Plan to recruit your family, friends and others to assist that final weekend. Your participation is critical to the success of getting our slate of Republicans elected. Pass this message on. We all know Republicans that just need to be asked to help, don't hesitate, contact headquarters today (869-7281) to identify the areas where you can help!
